Mike-

There are just a few hours left in the month of September - one last chance to contribute to our campaign.

Over the past few months, I know how generous you've been in supporting us. In doing so, you've helped us reach people who never would have known about our message of limited government and more prosperity for America's future.

Because of the support and enthusiasm you've shown, the past three months have been our best yet. For instance, we resoundingly won every straw poll held throughout Florida. We were also able to take our message to every corner of the state - from the Florida Keys to the Panhandle and practically everywhere in between. It's no wonder conservatives across the country have taken notice of what we are building together in Florida, as National Review featured us on its magazine cover and prominent columnist George F. Will highlighted why he believes we can win this race.

Before this month is over and the next fundraising report is due, I'm asking you to be generous once again and please donate to our campaign. You can log on to MarcoRubio.com and make your donation online. Please make sure you do so before midnight tonight.

No donation is too small. All amounts, large and small, are helping us build a path to victory.

Thank you again for your generosity and past support. I look forward to working with you as we continue moving ahead.

Thank you,

Marco Rubio
